

Dr. Gray's Sunday Snapshot

Week of October 29th, 2018

Good Evening King School families, this is Dr. Gray with your Sunday Snapshot for the week of October 29th.

- On Wednesday October 31st we will have a special School Spirit Day, “Black and Orange Day”. This is also a reminder that we do NOT dress up for Halloween here at King School. Friday’s Fall Festival is the time where students can wear costumes.
- I am excited to share that this Friday, November 2nd we will have our annual PTO Fall Festival, from 6-8:00 pm. An evening full of fun, family-friendly activities has been planned to make it a great time for all. Be ready to be spooked by your teachers as we bring back an old favorite from years ago... The King School Haunted House! You can win awesome prizes during the exciting games and activities, and you’ll be able to dance with your friends as a DJ will be playing music all evening long. You will also have the chance create fall festive crafts, and the PTO will even be hosting a Bake Sale. This event is for the entire family, and students, siblings, and even parents can come dressed in their Halloween costumes. We hope to see you on Friday from 6-8 pm!
- The November King School calendar will be emailed to all families early this week, and will also be available on our website. Please refer to this calendar for all of the month’s activities, and for reminders about the half-days and days off that will occur throughout November.

- This Friday November 2nd will be Sports Team spirit day! This is a great time of year where football, baseball, basketball, hockey, and soccer are all in action. We're asking everyone to wear jerseys, shirts, hats, or any type of gear from your favorite team, representing whatever sport you like.

I hope you and your families have a positive and productive week.
