Week of March 25, 2019

Good Evening King School families, this is Dr. Gray with your Sunday Snapshot for the week of March 25th, 2019.

- Attention students: The Piscataway Reads Journeys Contest has been open for the past month, and ends this Wednesday. If you are interested, please feel free to share your journey, or the journey of someone you know in the form of a poem, speech, drawing, song, dance, or video. Your entry must be submitted to your literacy teacher by Wednesday March 27th.
- Our annual MLK Spring Food Drive will begin this week, and will end on Friday April 5th. In preparation, all students should have already received the purple flyer and the orange plastic bag. Students are asked to bring in non-perishable canned or packaged goods, or personal care items (such as soap, shampoo, toothpaste, or diapers) to help us in our efforts to provide for those in need. 4th grade students, please see Mr. Tosies in room 37 and 5th grade students see Mrs. Fusaro in room 13, before placing your items in the green bins in the foyer. Let's get off to a great start by filling some bins this opening week!
- Friday's school spirit day will be "Mustache Day". Since none of our students have mustaches, I'm looking forward to your creativity with this one.

I hope you and your families have a positive and productive week.
