

Sunday Snapshot -Families

Week of April 17th, 2017

Good Evening King School families, this is Dr. Gray with your Sunday Snapshot for the week of April 17th, 2017. I hope you have been enjoying your spring break, the beautiful weather, and have been able to spend some quality time with your family and friends. For those who celebrate, I wish you a Happy Easter Sunday.

- School will be closed on Monday April 17th as the final day off for spring break. Enjoy the day, and prepare yourself to get back into the school routine.
- Tuesday April 18th marks the first day of the fourth marking period. It's hard to believe three marking periods are behind us, and only one marking period separates us from summer vacation. Let's all embrace the attitude that we are going to finish strong, and make this the best marking period of the entire school year!
- On Wednesday April 19th, students in the following classes will be having their class trip:

Hutchinson Paust

- On Friday April 21st, marking period 3 report cards will be available in the Genesis Parent Module.
- Friday's school spirit day will be "Dress Fancy Day". This will be an easy one for me. I look forward to seeing each of you dressed up as well.

I hope you and your families have a positive and productive week.
