

Sunday Snapshot -Families

Week of January 2nd, 2017

Good Evening King School families, this is Dr. Gray with your Sunday Snapshot for the week of January 2nd, 2017... the first Sunday Snapshot of the New Year. I hope you and your families had an enjoyable winter break, and memorable holiday celebrations.

- Monday January 2nd will be the final day of the winter break. School will resume as normal on Tuesday January 3rd.
- Our January school calendar was emailed to all families the week before the holiday break. It can also be found on the homepage of our school website. In particular, please make note of the music concerts taking place later in the month.
- Parents, just a reminder to please make sure children bring outerwear suitable for the elements. We will continue to take students outside for recess throughout the winter months, and want to make sure they can play comfortably despite the decreasing temperatures. Additionally, please keep in mind that students are not allowed to wear outerwear in the building. If your child has a tendency to be cold, please make sure he or she is wearing a long sleeved shirt, sweater, or sweatshirt.
- Friday's school spirit day will be "Crazy Hair Day". There aren't too many crazy things I can do with my hair, but I look forward to seeing the creative ways you make your hair crazy.

Students, although I had a wonderful break with some much needed rest, I really look forward to returning to King on Tuesday to see each one of you. Parents, I wish you and your families wonderful and prosperous New Year!
