February 17th

Yearbook Reminder

Flyers were sent home for the 2019/2020 yearbook online sale (the deadline for electronic purchase, as well as boosters and 5th grader baby photos submissions is Monday, March 23rd.)

Information on how to order via cash/check will be sent out next month Tacos 'n Tiles Event Details

Tacos'n Tiles night is coming soon on Friday, February 28th. If you haven't already done so, 1st register online via this link: <http://tiny.cc/TacosTiles>, then send in payment to PTO (no later than February 24th.) Cost is $30/tile (includes tile, painting supplies & 2 walking taco meals.) Additional meals can be ordered via the registration link. No money will be accepted during the event.

This is a fun family event you won't want to miss out on. Space is limited, early registration is recommended. Leave your mark on King School by painting your own ceiling tile!

Spring Book Fair The Spring Book Fair is scheduled for the week of March 16th - culminating on Friday, March 20th with our annual Family Fun Night. The school will earn 70% of sales, which will go directly to purchasing books and supplies for the MLK library and classrooms!

New this year: Parents, join Ms Blanshaft the morning of March 18th to discuss how to engage your child with reading. The Book Fair will be open for your perusal/purchases (perfect time to stock up for spring break.) You may shop on your own or with your child. Light refreshments will be served.

Expect lots of fun activities during Family Fun Night, rumor has it Dr. Gray may be up for a challenge or two with students (Rap battle? Hoops challenge? You'll need to attend to find out.)

tickets for prizes will be earned through participating in activities during the event, and of course don't forget to stop by Book Fair before it's too late.
